Examination of Application #09/809,169

1. Claims 1-10 of application 09/809,169, filed on 16-March-2001, are presented for examination. This paper is in response to applicant's amendment received 14-January-2005.

Claim Rejections under 35 U.S.C. § 101

2. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:
Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefore, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.
- 2.1 Storage medium claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 101 for reciting limitations for storing an analytic model preparing program for automatically preparing an analytic model for analysis from a CAD model. The examiner respectfully posits that the program stored on the storage medium is nothing more than data stored on a disk, and requires amendments to the limitations regarding the use of the data by a computer processing system. For example, the claims could be amended to include, "A storage medium storing an analytic model preparing program, which when executed by a computer causes the computer to automatically prepare an analytic model for analysis from a Cad model".

Allowed Claims

3. Claims 1, 2 and 5-10 are deemed allowable over the prior art of record at this time.
